

Local Listings for March/April 2025

This is a new regular feature in the Neighbourhood News. If you have any local events planned for May and June then please do contact me for inclusion:
juliette.stephenson1@gmail.com

Custom House: 46 The Quay, EX2 4AN

Featuring exclusive new work, 'Precious and Impossible' gathers together over three decades of poetry from the T S Eliot Prize-winning Anthony Joseph.

Further info - <https://quaywords.org.uk/>

Wed 12th Mar 2025 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Cygnnet Theatre: Friars Gate, EX2 4AZ

Further info - www.cygnnettheatre.co.uk

7th March Django Chutney – a three-piece vocal harmony group

14th March The Thirty-Nine Steps – theatre with Jonathan Goodwin

15th March Multi-story theatre present Last Dance Saloon

27th March Blue Vanguard jazz – trio with guest Dave Newton (Piano)

28th March Dead on Cue – theatre, a ghostly thriller by Mark Carey

29th March The First Men in the Moon – theatre, performed by Mark Jardine

4th April Artemis - Storytelling Double Bill

10th April Flo Smith – theatre, written by Christopher Saul with Ursula Mohan

11th April The Jonathan Gee Trio

19th April Rowan Stuart – singer, songwriter

24th April Blue Vanguard Jazz – trio with guest Sam Crockatt (sax)

25th April A cabaret experience with Awkward Pigeon Theatre

The Mount Radford: 73-75 Magdalen Road, EX2 4TA

Neighbourhood News POP IN TO THE PUB consultation on articles and suggestions please. 7pm to 9pm.

Pub Quiz – every Sunday evening 8pm

Folk night – last Wednesday of each month 7pm

Old St Leonard's Hall: Studio, Roberts Road, EX2 4HD

 First Friday Society (FFS) :

Every 1st Friday of the month doors open 6pm – 10pm

Informal neighbourly get-together. Please invite your neighbours and anyone else you care to include in our fabulous community. Tea and Coffee provided. Feel free to bring your favourite tittle and some vegetarian/vegan food to share. Looking forward to seeing you then.

The next one is on 7th March and by popular demand will have a 'wear a tail' theme – it's not compulsory but feel free to wear your own or we will provide materials for you to make your own if you want to join the silliness.

 The Art of the Magic Lantern - tales and fantastical visions from before TV

14th March 7pm

Join us for an evening of 19th-century projected images. Experience the enchanting world of the magic lantern, where brightly-coloured images and captivating stories come to life before your very eyes!

Under the guidance of Dr Richard Crangle, a true expert in the field, will share some of his favourite slides, weaving fascinating tales and insights about how these early projection devices captured the imaginations of their audiences. Join us as Richard explains the historical significance of magic lanterns, the artistry behind them, and the stories they told long before the era of movies and television.

Victorian-inspired drinks and snacks will be available.

This event is in aid of CoLab's new Exeter Women's Centre. CoLab supports those with complex life situations and multiple disadvantages. To find out more - <https://www.colabexeter.org.uk/colab-women>

Please donate if you can – all contributions gratefully received.

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-art-of-the-magic-lantern-tickets-1243935276899>

Mondays: Beginner friendly Yoga Class 7.00pm – 8.00pm

For more information or to book contact Matt on 07703842053

Tuesdays: Breakdance lessons 5.30pm – 6.30pm

For more information or to book contact Sam on 07742427368

The Port Royal: Weirfield Path, EX2 4DR

Free Pool - Every Wednesday

Pub Quiz – every Thursday 8pm start

New to '25 – Live Music ... watch this space!

Studio 36: 36 Denmark Road, EX1 1SE

coming up in March SKETCH IT!

By chance we have a free gallery in March, I have always loved sketches, and the important thing is they so often show how a person looks and thinks, and first appreciates what they see, so they are very individual.

We are inviting those we have come across who sketch, (or who might!)

to respond to what has become a spontaneous idea, and hope you will join us.

for a lively exhibition. presentation to be discussed.

April 5th. CREATIVE INTEGRATION

A day of cultural performance by New Exonians together with resident artists in conjunction with the organisation Inclusive Exeter.

It will include international dance, martial art, poetry and music, painting and sculpture, which, if we get enough of the latter can run for 2 or 3 weeks.

For more information see www.studio36exeter.co.uk